Welcome,

You will need to download and print our New Client forms. There are four forms in total. Please be sure to complete both sides of each form and bring them with you on the day of your visit.

On the day of your appointment please do not wear any scented products or products containing petrochemicals. Many of Dr. Margaret's patients are chemically sensitive and are adversely affected by these products. These chemicals are in laundry detergent, such as Tide, and fabric softeners, like Downy, or clothes that have been dry-cleaned.

We also request that you do not use your wireless communication devices while in the office space. Please turn off your cell phones, wireless computers, calendars and/or other wireless accessories you bring into the office, and refrain from using them at any time in this space.

So, on the day of your visit, please wear clean clothing if possible and come cell phone-free. And if you think that there are chemicals in the clothes, air them out before using them for Office Visits. Also shampoos, scented deodorants and antiperspirants may contain harmful chemicals. Please read your labels and if they have words you find difficult to pronounce, consider them harmful to both yourself and others in the office.

If you have any questions please call us at the phone number provided above.

We look forward to meeting you,

Joan Margaret and staff
